

Redeemer Crisis Center February 12, 2006

It took a whole team of people to make the dinner at Redeemer Crisis Center a success. All of the 20 or so people who went agreed that it was an important social ministry project. The recipients of the meals and mugs filled with toiletries, hot chocolate, cup of soup, pencils, etc. were appreciative of Hope's concern for them. There were other tasks to keep volunteers busy besides serving dinner. Joey Schuster, Marge Godale, and Linda Williams sorted and hung clothes. Debbi & Allison Schuster helped stock shelves and bag food for distribution. Reidun Livingston and Dave Bell were the tray washers. Special thanks to Judy & Dave Rediger for procuring the 16 pans of Stouffer's lasagna and making sure everyone had the cooking instructions. Cindy Carrasco baked and individually bagged 20 dozen chocolate chip cookies that were distributed to dinner guests to take with them. Michelle Cheek along with Isaiah and Xavier shopped and took down to Redeemer over 120 cans of pop. Ralph and Linda Williams went shopping at Sam's Club for salad fixings, rolls, butter, and other miscellaneous items. Bob Mihalak was a master in the kitchen warming chicken noodle soup provided by Chris Schwed, green beans, and overseeing the cutting of the lasagna. Ruth Kosinar had a chance to meet most of the dinner guests as she passed out mugs and cookies. Other volunteers on the trip were Alan & Emily Foster, Gary & Peggy Robinson, Pastor Mann, Chuck Godale and Ruth and Jim Gabler. Sue Hurting, and Nancy Welsh baked lasagnas. Thank you from the team at Redeemer, Diane, Ruben, Muriel and all the dinner guests to everyone who contributed in some way especially with your donations of time and mug gifts to practice what our Lord Jesus taught.

SO.....LET'S DO IT AGAIN!

Next Redeemer Crisis Center Dinner served by Hope is planned for Sunday, June 11. Put it on your calendar now and don't make other plans. It will probably be the best thing you do in June

CAN YOU AFFORD TO SKIP A MEAL OR TWO????

Help with the cost of the June Redeemer Crisis Center meal by skipping a meal or two during Lent. Pledge to skip a meal and donate the $5 to the Redeemer Food Fund. Plans are underway to have Thrivent match part of the funds for this social ministry project. When you donate color in a place setting on the "Skip A Meal Chart" and deposit your checks made out to Hope (designate Skip A Meal on the check) or cash in the box.
